The Blue Door Clinic is a walk-in clinic for people who do not have health insurance or immigration status in Canada. We provide short-term medical care focusing on HIV treatment, community support and assistance, and links to ongoing services.

Our services include:

- walk-in medical visits specializing in HIV treatment
 - access to doctors, nurses and community resource workers
 - blood tests and lab costs
 - vaccines and immunizations
 - connections to medication access programs
 - support navigating community services in Toronto
 - links to ongoing medical care and a family doctor
 - referral to a variety of programs in Toronto (housing, legal, settlement, social supports, and other community services)
